NAME OF CLUB	DESCRIPTION & DETAILS
All Nations Christian Fellowship	We exist to spread a passion for the truth and glory of Jesus Christ to college students from all nations. We meet on Sundays to go to church together and have lunch fellowship afterwards, we meet during the week for Bible study and prayer, and we try to do fun things together (ie. bowling, hiking, beach bonfires, and trips to LA, SF, Yosemite, etc.). You do not have to be a Christian to join us... Whether you want to grow in your relationship with God or just explore the truth claims of Christianity, all our welcome!
NAMI On Campus Club	NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) strives to promote awareness of mental health and mental illnesses, as well as get rid of the stigma around it. Through meetings, panels, volunteer events, and socials, NAMI creates safe spaces to help better the wellness of students and faculty on campus.
Muslim Student Association	The MSA brings together Muslim students and students inclined to learn about Islam and its customs. It is also a space for students to experience new hobbies with the companionship of other students with the same religion.
Marine Mammal Research Group	The Marine Mammal Research Group is a space for all students to explore a possible career in marine science or to just show their love for the ocean. Through field surveys and analyzing data students can study marine mammals around the coast of Orange County such as Bottle Nose Dolphins, Harbor Seals, and Sealions. All students of every major are invited to join!

Vietnamese Catholic Student Association	VCSA stands for Vietnamese Catholic Student Association. However, you don't need to be a Catholic to join. The objective of OCC VCSA club are to live out the Catholic faith, to help others and excel in school, and to embrace charity services. OCC VCSA is also a part of the statewide VCSA, which is a non-profit organization.
Architecture Club	Students with a passion for architecture and design.
